Girl Scouts are leaders in finding a way despite challenging times, and 2021 is no exception. Girls are adapting their sales methods to share the joy of Girl Scout Cookies through the largest girl-led entrepreneurship program.

New for 2021 - a new national collaboration with Grubhub, offering contact free delivery in selected areas. And coming soon, we are partnering with Girl Scouts of the USA for online cookie booths so consumers can purchase cookies from a local troop for direct shipment to their homes or donation to Operation: Cookie Drop.

We are here to support the troops as they begin the 2021 Girl Scout Cookie Program. Our website is packed with resources for troops and cookie sellers, and we are here to help with any questions. Please contact us if you need help. Let's make this the best cookie season ever!

The weather may have been cold, but spirits were high as Girl Scout entrepreneurs warmed up Winterlights with s'mores. Guests enjoyed more than 8,000 of these sweet treats during this annual event.

Congratulations to all the troops that used their business skills to make this a huge success by raising more than $3,000 for troop activities.

In the News

You may have recently heard a news story surrounding palm oil and its use in Girl Scout Cookies. To be very clear, child labor has no place in the production of Girl Scout Cookies. GSUSA continues to work with our bakers to increase the transparency and sustainability of our production lines and sourcing to prevent these types of occurrences from happening. The issues the article raises are important ones, and require the cooperation of many people, companies, and organizations, including ours, to solve.

We are continuing to monitor the public conversation about this issue, and we will send further information to troops, closer to booth weekends, if necessary.

The Giving Garden Makes an Impact

Thank you to each and every individual who helped plant the seeds to make our garden grow!

The Girl Scout Giving Garden raised $10,550 that goes directly to provide membership scholarships so that every girl in our community has the opportunity to be a Girl Scout. Through your generosity and support, we are able to directly fund 422 scholarships. These gifts provide opportunity, leadership, adventure and exploration – and the ability for even more girls to make the world a better place.

Together, we build girls of courage, confidence and character.
