

Girl Scout Cookie Booth Etiquette

Below are guidelines that troops are expected to follow at their cookie booth.

- ❖ Have your eBudde booth confirmation with you.
- ❖ Arrive and leave on time.
- ❖ Come prepared. Bring a small table, chairs, change, phone numbers and booth confirmation.
- ❖ Be respectful. A maximum of two Girl Scouts and two adults are allowed.
- ❖ A registered Girl Scout must be present at your booth.
- ❖ A registered Girl Scout adult must be present at your booth.
- ❖ Sell only Girl Scout cookies at your Girl Scout cookie booth.
- ❖ Wear weather appropriate clothing
- ❖ Create a colorful display
- ❖ Leave siblings and friends at home.
- ❖ Behave appropriately. Playing games and running around is not appropriate.
- ❖ Keep your money protected.
- ❖ Leave the area clean. Take empty boxes home with you.
- ❖ Service animals are the only animals permitted at your cookie booth.
- ❖ Thank the manager when you are leaving. Your troop may wish to leave them a package of Girl Scout Cookies.
- ❖ In the event you arrive at a booth location and another troop is there, first check your confirmation to verify which troop has the correct place and time. If you continue to have questions, please call customer care during regular business hours at 317.924.6800 or email [customer care@girlscoutsindiana.org](mailto:customer care@girlscoutsindiana.org).
